She will not rouse herself! Good people, pray, Press not upon her. Bring a car, O slave, The lady is unable to return On foot. The carriage waits without the place? Tis well. And now to bring her to herself! Cornelia, waken! But look not so cold. Thou gentle heart! relieve the strain of grief 38 With tears of passion. Then come home, come home. Cor. (rousing herself). Tell me, who art thou, O thou noble maid? Virg. I am Virginia, whom thou knowest not. Cor. Canst thou not take me from this staring crowd? Their eyes are knives; the very air is poison. Oh, God! He is not dead? Virg. (assisting her to her feet). Come home, sweet sister. Tib. (sobbing). Cornelia, my Cornelia! Speak to me! Virg. Art thou Tiberius, thou tender child? Weep not; assist me with thy stricken sister. As the three, the slaves in close attendance, are about to make their way through the multitude, there comes a sudden disturbance, and Marcus Claudius springs...
