The semi-centennial anniversary of the first inauguration of George Washington, as President of the United States, and the organization of the general government under the Federal Constitution, was celebrated in the city of New York, on Tuesday, April 30th, 1839, by a public Oration and Dinner, under the direction of a committee of the New York Historical Society. The Honorable John Quincy Adams, the sixth President of the United States, was selected as the Orator on this interesting occasion; and letters of invitation were addressed to distinguished survivors of the Revolutionary period, to the Historical Societies of other states, and to various public functionaries, requesting their attendance. Mh. Adams, having accepted the appointment, arrived in town from Washington on Monday, April 29th, and in the evening met a large number of the members of the Society at their rooms in the Stuyvesant Institute. From thence the company repaired by invitation to the house of Mr. Stuyvesant, the President of the Society, where a sumptuous entertainment was provided for the occasion. On Tuesday, at eleven o'clock, A. M., the Society with their guests assembled at the City Hotel, where a large number of citizens joined them in paying their personal respects to the venerable Orator of the day, and to the Revolutionary veterans, who, disregarding the infirmities of age, had once more rallied in honour of their beloved Chief. Among the guests were Colonel John Trumbull, General Morgan Lewis, Mr. Justice...
