Excerpt from book: APPENDIX. No. LXXXIV. ELIZABETH TO JAMES. 21ST JULY 1586. COPY IN THOMPSON MS. P. 69. Congratulations and thanks on the conclusion of a league between England and Scotland. The league to which this letter refers bears date 5th July 1586, and is printed in Rymer's Foedera, Xv. 803. My triall of your sincere affection, my dear brother, in the concluding of our league, hath ben both pleasing to my exiectacion and necessary for your government; for both you have linked such a one to you as but your self canne ever separate, and you have made a quintessence of sum humours, which, if they had lven lurking, you would parchance have nourished them as mete instruments to sever your kingdoms quiet and your good frends love. But since you have made so good a tast how sower liquor they hold, and how grosly they would handle...
